ARDMORE, FRIDAY, OCT. 12.

APPROACHING ANNIVERSARY

On October 28 the ARDMOREITE will be one year old. The nearness of that important occasion which notably marks an interesting epoch in its destiny, but which will proclaim to the world that Ardmore has arrived at that stage of progressiveness which makes it possible for a live local daily to maintain an existence in her midst, has caused management to decide on the issuance on that day of a mammoth souvenir edition. It will be devoted to a history of the improvements and changes during the past year and forecast of the city's future prospects. It will in every way be such a paper as will redound to the benefit of the city and as an advertising medium will be unexcelled by any thing of the kind ever attempted in the past.

It is the desire of the ARDMOREITE that every business man in the city should be represented and to that end contracts for space should be secured at as early a day convenient. You need not hold back to be waited upon by the solicitor but call at the office at any time during business hours and secure your place on the band wagon.

New York's Women's Clubs.

The plan proposed for the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs, which it is expected will be organized this coming winter, is to arrange the clubs represented in groups. These would include literary, educational, scientific, industrial, professional and the rest, and under this scheme every interest will find its proper place and development. The preliminary conference will be held on the 19th and 20th of November, and every woman's club in New York state is asked to take part in it.

Can Ride as Well as Record.

Miss Sadie Monroe Swift, the clever official reporter of the Middlesex and Barnstable terms of the supreme court of Massachusetts, who won the distinction of being the first and youngest woman to be officially recognized in Boston as a court stenographer, has made another record. The past summer she rode on her wheel to Yarmouth from Boston, over a route 88½ miles long, in less than 10 hours on an extremely hot day, being the first woman to make the run.

For Louisiana Women.

The Christian Woman's Exchange of New Orleans encourages an art interest and opens new avenues of remunerative work for women in Louisiana by offering, as it does, two medals—a gold one and a silver one—for the best decorative design for wall paper, textile fabric, fresco carving, pottery, book covers, wrought iron, stained glass, tile floors, tile mantels, art embroidery and the rest of the list. The competition closes March 1, 1895.

Miss Sanger Transferred.

Miss Alice Sanger, the only woman employed in the executive mansion in a clerical capacity, has been transferred to the postoffice department. Miss Sanger has been employed at the White House since the beginning of the Harrison administration. There is not enough work at the White House to justify a continuance of the present force, and the vacancy just created will not be filled.

A Boston Opinion.

It is very sad to read of the wrath of the woman suffragists of New York over their defeat in the constitutional convention and of their announced determination to blacklist every delegate who voted against them. It seems to demonstrate anew that the women are unfitted for the ups and downs of political strife.—Boston Herald.

Collars and Headaches.

The stiff high collars, particularly when worn by short-necked women, are being accused of producing nervous headache. They press at the back directly upon the sensitive base of the brain and compress, often to the point of injury, the veins and arteries of the neck, frequently causing a congestion that ends in headache.

The Klumpe Sisters.

Miss Dorothy Klumpe, who has distinguished herself in Paris, and who passed her examination before the Sorbonne so triumphantly, presenting a thesis on the nature of the rings of Saturn and receiving her doctor's degree, is a sister of Miss Anna Klumpe of Boston, an artist who has a studio on Beacon street, and who is known as a portrait painter of very exceptional power. Her sister in Paris, who has been made a doctor of sciences, presented in her thesis before the Sorbonne a very new and original theory regarding the rings of Saturn—that they are composed of solid masses rather than of gaseous or fluid substance, as has hitherto been believed. There is still another of these talented sisters, Dr. Djerine Klumpe, who is a doctor of medicine and is living abroad.

If you wish to make some pretty Christmas decorations, visit the studio of Miss Rose Smith and get some new ideas. Christmas will soon be here.

KLOSKI IS

Both ready and willing to make prices and figures with you on anything and everything you need for yourself, your wife, your children.

Everything to eat Kloski has it.

Everything to wear Kloski has it.

Everything you can buy elsewhere Kloski has it for less money.

Kloski has the biggest stock.

Kloski has the best goods.

Kloski makes the lowest prices.

And you know it if you are Kloski's customer, if you are not then

ARE YOU READY

And willing to let Kloski prove it? Are you ready and willing to let Kloski prove to you that all classes of wooden and cotton goods are cheaper this year than last year, and when you sell cotton for a low price, you can buy more goods for $10 this year than you could for $12 last fall. Are you willing to get Kloski's prices before you buy your fall goods, and if he does not convince you that he will make this assertion good, and if only sell on goods 20 per cent cheaper than last fall, but will guarantee you prices 20 per cent cheaper than any house in Ardmore sold you last fall, or will sell you this fall.

ARE YOU READY

For your fall bill? If so, see Kloski and let him prove it.

Yours, Always the Lowest,

A. KLOSKI.
